RLTSC NEWS

Plenty of sunshine so there is no excuse not to use our fine facilities at RLTSC. We are out and about at Radlett Sportsfest 2018 this Saturday 30th June from 2-5pm, to support the Aldenham Parish Council hosted event at the Phillimore Recreation Ground. Please come along for a fun afternoon and look out for us!

We have our Open weekend on Saturday 7th & Sunday 8th July which forms part of the LTA Weekend of Tennis. There are plenty of free activities, exhibitions and refreshments to look forward to including coaching, touchtennis tournament, Parent and Child competition, fastest serve, Beat the coach and Cardio Tennis. You can sign up to the sessions in advance on the club's website www.rltsc.com and don't forget to tell family and friends too.

Tennis News

The Men's A team continues to top their league so well done for flying the flag. Rumour has it that the B team is also on a winning streak!

News from the Ladies is that the Mixed A in the WDTL are 2nd in the league and could even mathematically be promoted depending on other people's results.

I also hear that Claire Booth and Karen Curran have the honour of winning the most games in Division 1 of the Ladies WDTL league which is an amazing result as it is a strong league. Well done girls.

Radlett 9U are the WINNERS of their division! What is even more impressive is that the top 4 players out of 38 players who played in this division are from Radlett.

Lastly well done to Cordy who won the girls and Josh who won the boys and are through to the County Finals of the Road to Wimbledon competition to be held at Queenswood School in July.

Please continue to send me your results as we can all share in your success!

Squash News

Squash continues to run its normal Summer schedule of busy activities!
