RLTSC NEWS

20 RLTSC children accompanied by 10 parents had a fantastic day out on No 1 court at finals Sunday at Wimbledon. The boys final featured 16 year old Jack Draper against the No 1 from Taiwan. Jack lost in the 3rd set but he surely acts a source of great inspiration to all who saw him exhibiting great skill and determination.

Following this the Ladies and Mens Invitation Doubles tournaments featuring greats such as Martina Navratilova (who is she the kids were asking!), Kim Clijsters, Mark Philippoussis and Tommy Haas. Please do email the office of your interest if you are interested in going with your child (u18) next year.

Tennis News

The Tennis Committee wish to adopt a different format for this year's Closed Club Tennis Tournament (15/16 September) to encourage more members to participate in the tournament and the whole event will run over one weekend. Members will be encouraged to bring their family along, with food available and the bar open. Prizes will be ongoing throughout the day. Please could you send an email to the office by August 7th to ensure we know of your interest and to understand if this new idea will be supported!

Congratulations to the Mens A team who secured promotion by winning Div 2 and returning to the top WDTL division with a win away to Rickmansworth last Tuesday. It has been a terrific season with 10 wins and 1 narrow loss so far. Particularly pleasing has been the emergence of so many of the Juniors into the Mens A team: Jamie Gall, Josh Ben, Zeke Kelly and Dom Harris are now the mainstay of the team with more juniors following in their path.

Jordan will be arranging a meeting in September to discuss numbers of Mens teams for next year and captains for them. If you are keen to get involved please let him know.

Squash News

The Squash courts have now all being newly maintained so there is no excuse not to come down to play. However please do remember to switch on the extractor fans and switch them off if you are the last ones playing. We are always looking to improve Squash so please pass all suggestions to the Squash Committee for any improvements - email: squash@rltsc.co.uk

Celebratory beer after winning away at Rickmansworth. With no juniors in sight – they are all on tennis tour in Spain with the Coaches – it was left up to the old guard!
