

THIS MONTH'S MAIN EVENTS

February Half Term Multi-Sports Camp

Monday 18th February to Friday 22nd February

RLTSC NEWS

The weather has turned very cold this week and please take care on court. If the Courts appear slippery to you then it is not wise to play.

Squash News

The Squash Club introduced the King of the Court social squash coaching last Monday 28th January. which was very successful. Derek Thorpe was delighted to see so many players involved where each player tried out the new fun format. He noted that those with children would have seen the game played for years at Junior Squash.

So, the idea of King of the Court is to get 8 players on one court and 2 people compete for a single rally, keeping away from the safe area. The winner is the player who reaches 7 points first, then we do it again on the "other side" of the court. The plan is to run the real "King of the Court" using all 4 courts on another evening Tues-Thurs. This competition is planned to have another dimension, where winners are promoted to the next higher court, after timed sessions. Anyone interested in this should contact the Squash Chairman kyri.costi@gmail.com.

The Junior Squash Club is also taking place on Sunday afternoons; and anyone interested in coming along to a free taster session should contact coach Julian Craxton on 07711 748557. The U11s are from 2.30-3.30pm with seniors 3.30-5pm.

Tennis News

The 1st Australian Open tournament has now finished with the finals played over the weekend where possible! Results will be posted. It would be great if more members would support these initiatives as the more members that part the better the experience for all. Well done to all who took part!

Please book early at <https://clubspark.lta.org.uk/CoachingatRLTSC/Coaching/Camps> for the Half term Tennis Camp starting on the 18th February -22nd from 9.30-3pm.

Remember please do enjoy all the Club has to offer!
