RLTSC NEWS

It is pleasing to report that the Club has passed the LTA minimum standards for safeguarding and the Club remains firmly committed to ensuring each and every member is safe whilst taking part in the Club. Thank you to Clare Sugarman our Welfare Officer who has guided the Club through this process.

It still appears to be case that on too many occasions the front door is left open with a fire extinguisher which not only damages the door but leaves the Club security at the mercy to all. We have spent quite a bit of money on having the front door repaired recently and we have had two break-ins over the last year. We have now installed an updated door entrance system which has key code access so there are NO reasons to keep the front door open! Can we please ensure that the front door always remains closed and if we see it open, please remove the obstruction and close the door! It is for everyone's benefit.

Thank you to all who have volunteered recently but the Club still needs many more to step up! There is the Security Rota that anyone can volunteer for as an example and please try and help when the Club asks for your assistance as it will benefit all!

As part of a concerted effort to tidy the Club is there a member who is a landscape contractor/garden contractor/garden supplier? We do need to remove trees, plants and generally tidy up the grounds. We will also be asking for volunteers to help tidy the Club's grounds and hopefully we can all make a difference to the appearance.

Lastly any lost property will be disposed of if no one collects it so please do go to lost property or ask at the Office, as every month we will be disposing of unwanted items.

Squash News

Social squash continues tomorrow, and Fridays and Mondays thereafter. Details are on the website.

Tennis News

The various League games will be starting in April so please look out for the bookings made as otherwise you will be disappointed when trying to play. The new courts will of course help to increase court availability. Please make yourselves available to the Club's Captains if you wish to be considered for any team and hopefully we will have another successful year in the Watford and Herts leagues.

Remember please do enjoy all the Club has to offer!
