RLTSC NEWS

The Club is now getting busier with the Squash season drawing to a close and the start of the Tennis Leagues. So please don't forget to enter the Annual Squash Championships starting on the 29th April and book the Tennis courts to avoid disappointment.

That leads me nicely to remind everyone that Membership renewals are due on 1st May and hopefully everyone has been reminded by email. Please do contact the office if you would like to change your membership status but this needs to be done by the 17th April latest.

Please don't be afraid if you spot our own Professor Tennis who is back in town for our Open Day on Sunday 5th May; don't be shy and give him a wave if you see him around.

We are about to send a very important survey to all our Members to try and understand a bit more of what you would like to see at our Club and to understand a bit more about all of you the Members. It would be fantastic if we got a good response as it will help us to help us to make the Club more inclusive and enjoyable for all. Please take 5 minutes to respond.

And now some Club news...

Tennis News

Well done to Jordan Miles who has been appointed Junior Tennis Coach for the European Maccabi Games in Budapest this Summer. It is great to see our Coaches recognised for their talent. Further congratulations go to Tash and Jamie who have now passed their LTA level 1 coaching course!

Also well done to our 12 & U Boys team who beat Welwyn 4-3 on Saturday in the top division

As notified in the last Newsletter there was a very successful Ladies, coach led, session and judging from the picture it was oversubscribed! The Men should clearly take notice!

Lastly with schools out for Midterm break the RLTSC Holiday Camp has started on 8th April

Squash News

Squash Social continues every Monday & Friday.

The closing date for the Annual Squash Championships is Thursday 25th April and for the Racketball event Thursday 18th April. Additional event added Squash 65+

Please remember the Club is only as good as what the members put in.
